

NOVA SCOTIA CONSTRUCTION LABOUR RELATIONS ASSOCIATION 50TH ANNIVERSARY ANNOUNCEMENT

Nova Scotia Construction Labour Relations Association is proud to announce that today, April 13, 2022, is our 50th anniversary of incorporation!

Through the years our name has changed from Construction Association Management Labour Bureau to Construction Management Bureau
to Nova Scotia Construction Labour Relations Association, but our focus has stayed the same.

Our purpose then and now is to represent employers in collective bargaining with trade unions in the industrial and commercial sector of the construction industry, as well as to work with contractors, trade unions, government, and our counterparts across the country to improve the position of unionized contractors in Nova Scotia.

We appreciate your participation and support in our organization.

In the coming months, CLRA will share information regarding a small gathering in the Fall to celebrate this milestone.

Please stay tuned!

Thank you,

*Robert Shepherd, President
Calum MacLeod, Labour Relations Officer
Angela Gallant, Administrator
Rowena Navarro, Administrator*
